

Abstract

This study investigates the performance metrics and productivity enhancement strategies employed at Sivaraj Spinning Mills. It analyzes key performance indicators (KPIs) such as production efficiency, quality control, machine utilization, and workforce productivity. The study aims to identify performance gaps and propose actionable solutions to optimize operations, improve resource utilization, and enhance overall productivity within the textile manufacturing process at the mill.